1. During the week of 22-28 February 1948, some sections of the administration of Land Saxony secretly prepared a list of enterprises for sequestration, mostly in the food, machine, and textile industries.
Firms were not selected because of political compromise of owner or management. Sequestration was for the purpose of transforming the firms later into SAGs or publicly owned enterprises.
2. In Leipzig, about two hundred firms were to be sequestered, including the following:
